Wednesday Conference August 21st / 3pm to 7pm for organizers of festivals, events aso. in the field of contemporary ice skating

„Networking and exchange so as to lay a professional fundament for the structures of contemporary ice skating across borders“

The goal is to gain exchange between organizers in the field to enhance the festival in Berlin, but to also support the festivals and events across the countries and the world.

The focus will be on the following aspects:

- improving professional organizational structures for artists and producers
- finding the audience and gain visibility
- developing communication and knowledge transfer
- encouraging a constant process of defining and reflecting on contemporary ice skating
- raising money

We want the international movement of contemporary ice skating to grow in an open-minded, respectful, and supportive atmosphere.

Participants of this conference will receive a personal invitation.

Whoever would like to share their expertise in our Wednesday conference according to the topics above is welcome!

Leave us a message here: info@unfreeze-festival.berlin

The timetable will be sent to the participants directly.

Festivals are intensive meeting points. Our goal is to initiate a professional dialog among the existing festivals and leading protagonists and to build up long-term working conditions columns for the emerging movement of contemporary ice skating.
